Application Deadline: May 10, 2015 at 11:59 pm

To apply you must:

- Be a high school student and a resident of Louisville, Jefferson County Metro
- Be a student entering the 10th, 11th or 12th grade in the Fall 2015
- Submit a completed application form (page 3) and a 500 word essay by the deadline
- If selected, be available to attend an interview (May 4-15 2015) and the Fellowship orientation (Saturday June 13, 2015)
- Be available for the entire six-week program from June 22 – July 31, 2015 (Monday-Friday, 8am to 4pm)

Instructions: In your 500 word essay introduce yourself. We want to know who you are. Share your views on at least one of the questions below: *(Your application must be legible to be considered.)

- Do you think all young people in Louisville have the same opportunity to enjoy good health and quality of life?
- Have you personally ever experienced violence in your life? If so, how did you react to it? Did anyone help you deal with it?
- What ideas do you have that might help to prevent bullying, assaults, shooting or violence of any kind in Louisville?
- Share with us your insights and the talents you will bring to the group, as we explore issues of race, class, culture, gender, violence and inequities.

Submit your essay and your completed application by 11:59 pm on May 10, 2015. You can submit your application via:
